A selection of exclusive ornamental carpets

Modenese Luxury Interiors offers a selection of exclusive ornamental carpets and rugs for the most luxurious home decoration projects. Every detail is important in a project and a sophisticated carpet like the ones we provide can truly make a difference in your villa. We have a team of experienced professional that can advise you on the most unique and timeless design option. If you are looking for a refined and high-quality product we are certain that you will love our carpets.

About the materials we use

To make our carpets even more elegant and unique we use refined materials such as silk, wool and natural fibers like the vegetable silk, a light and shiny fabric which is also extremely resistant and respectful of the environment. This fabric is obtained from the coating of the seeds of certain plants and can add brightness and beauty to your rooms. Every choice we make aims at creating a product that expresses elegance and meets our clients' exquisite taste.

Handmade by artisans

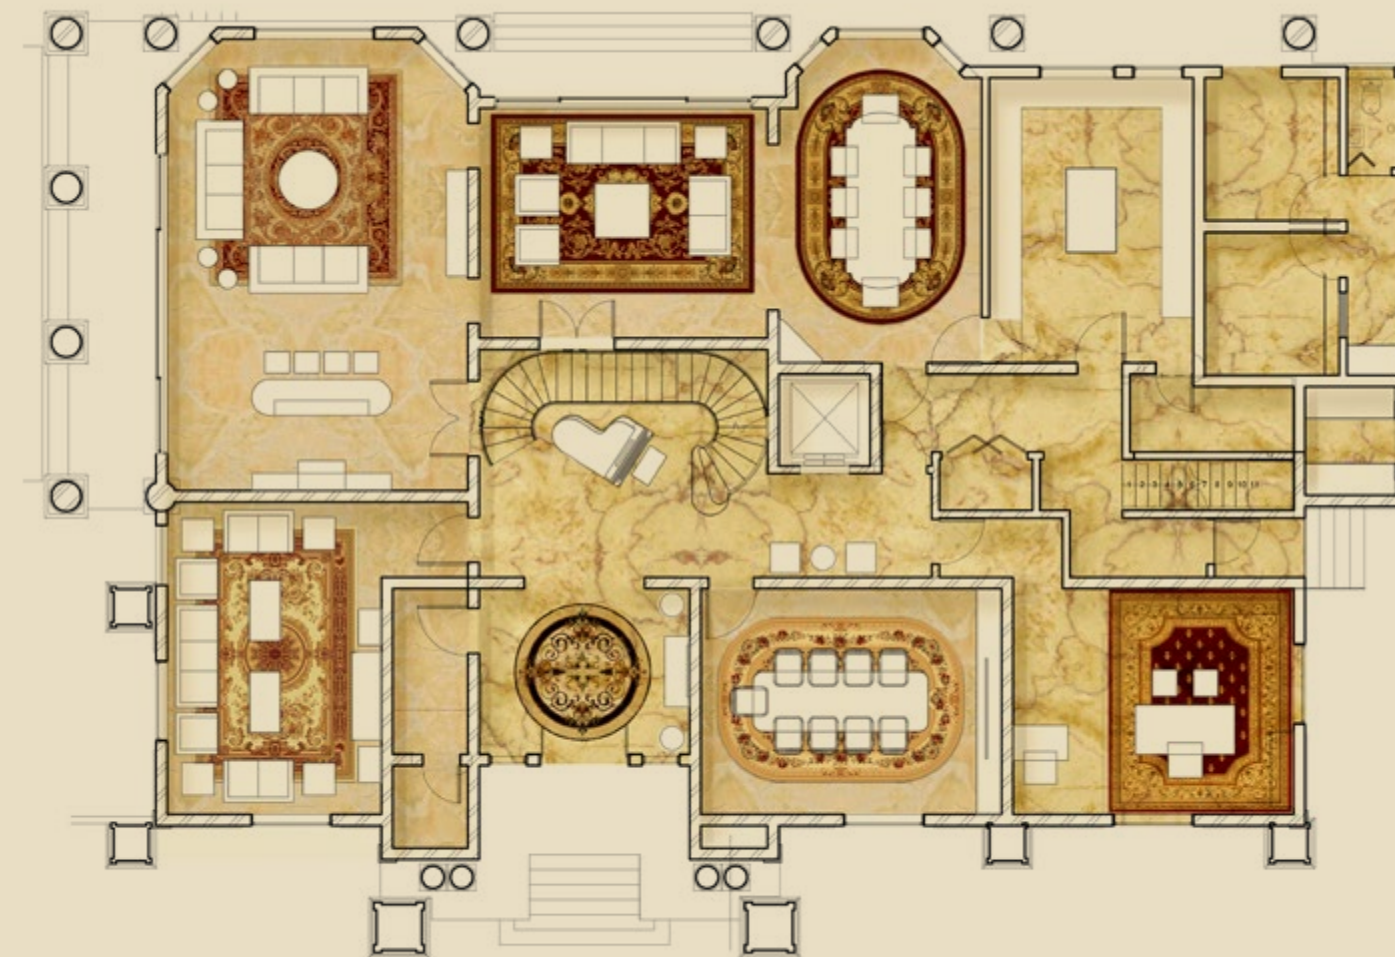

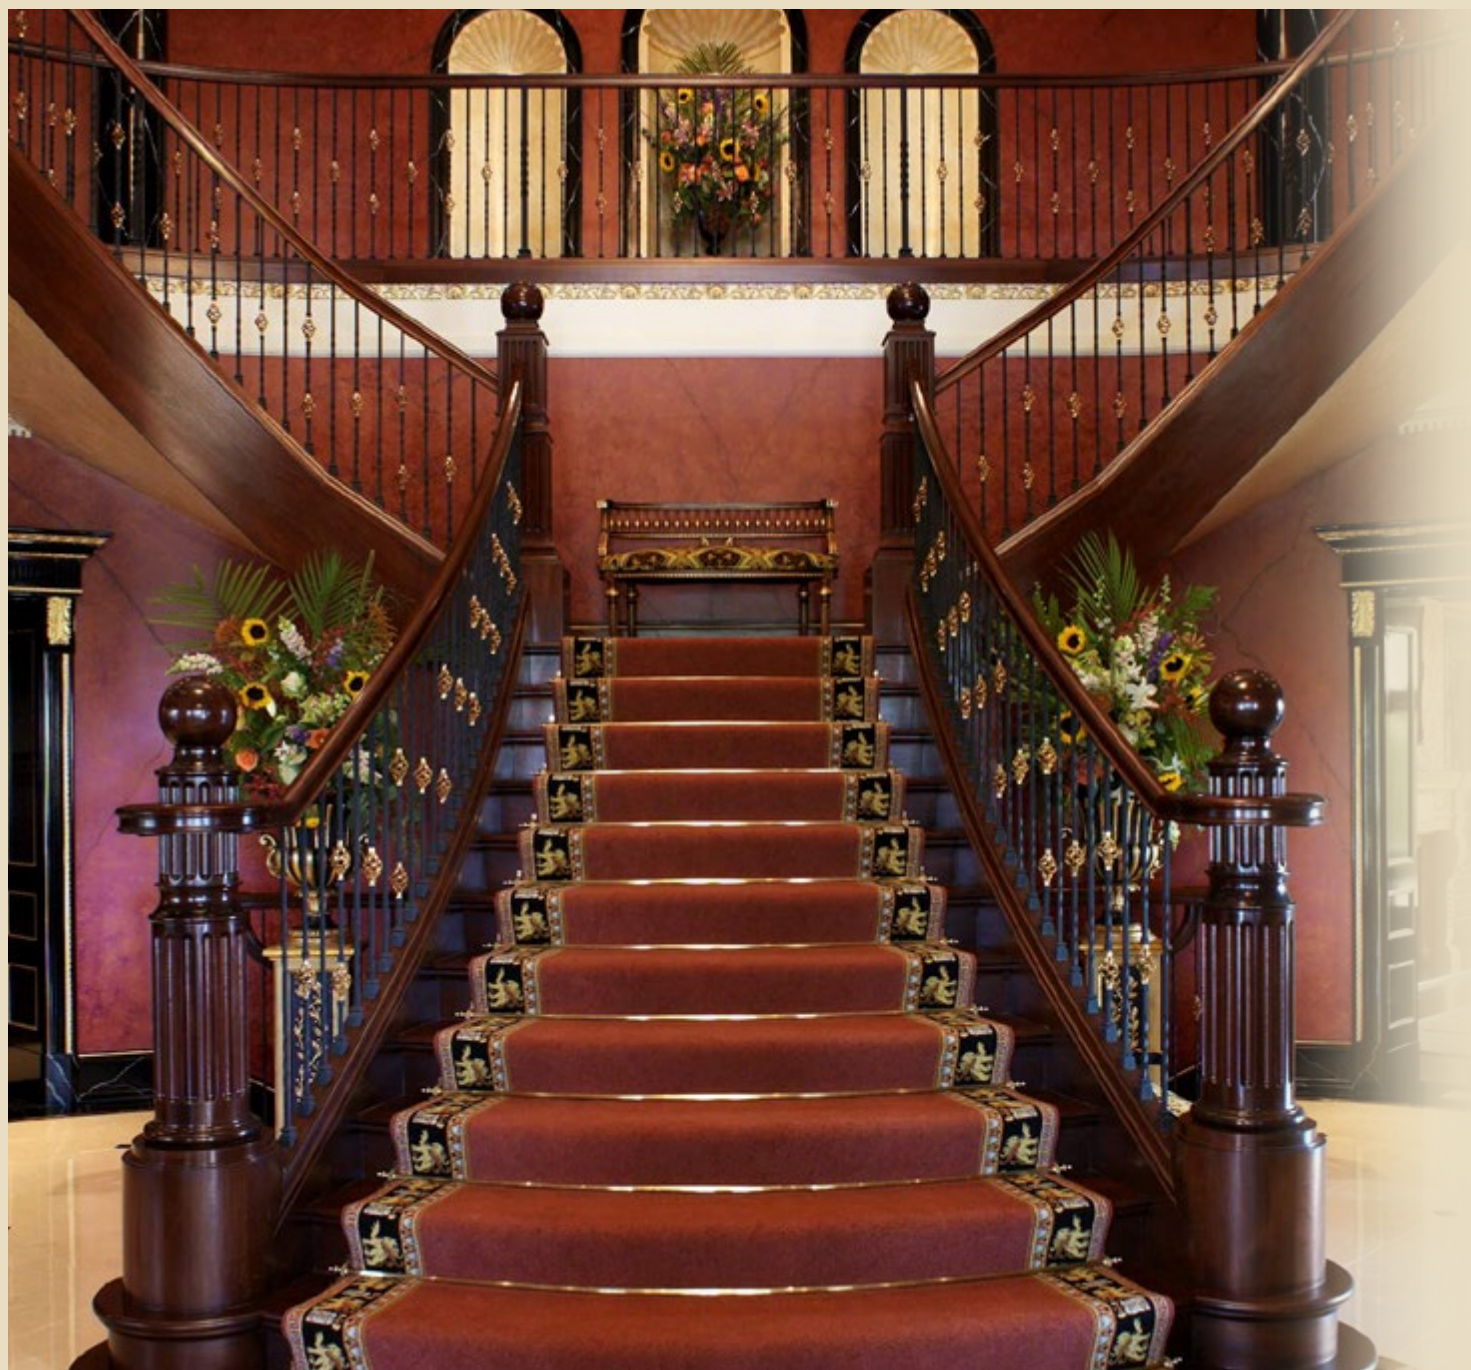

Our products are handmade by skilled artisans who use their extensive experience to create each day a traditional and timeless piece of art. Thanks to our carpet design you will be able to experience the real luxury lifestyle and enjoy the beauty and charm of our classical products in your daily life. We can offer you Italian and French style customized classic carpets to decorate your elegant and baroque royal palace and villa.

Customize your carpet to match your needs

Decorate your royal palace or villa with our exclusive and elegant handmade carpets accurately selected by Modenese Luxury Interiors expert designers. You can either choose the carpet you wish from our catalogue or ask our professionals to design a new carpet exclusively for you according to your expectations and house design. Since our carpets are handmade by Italian artisans you can customize them in terms of size, fabrics, colors and materials to match your needs and style.

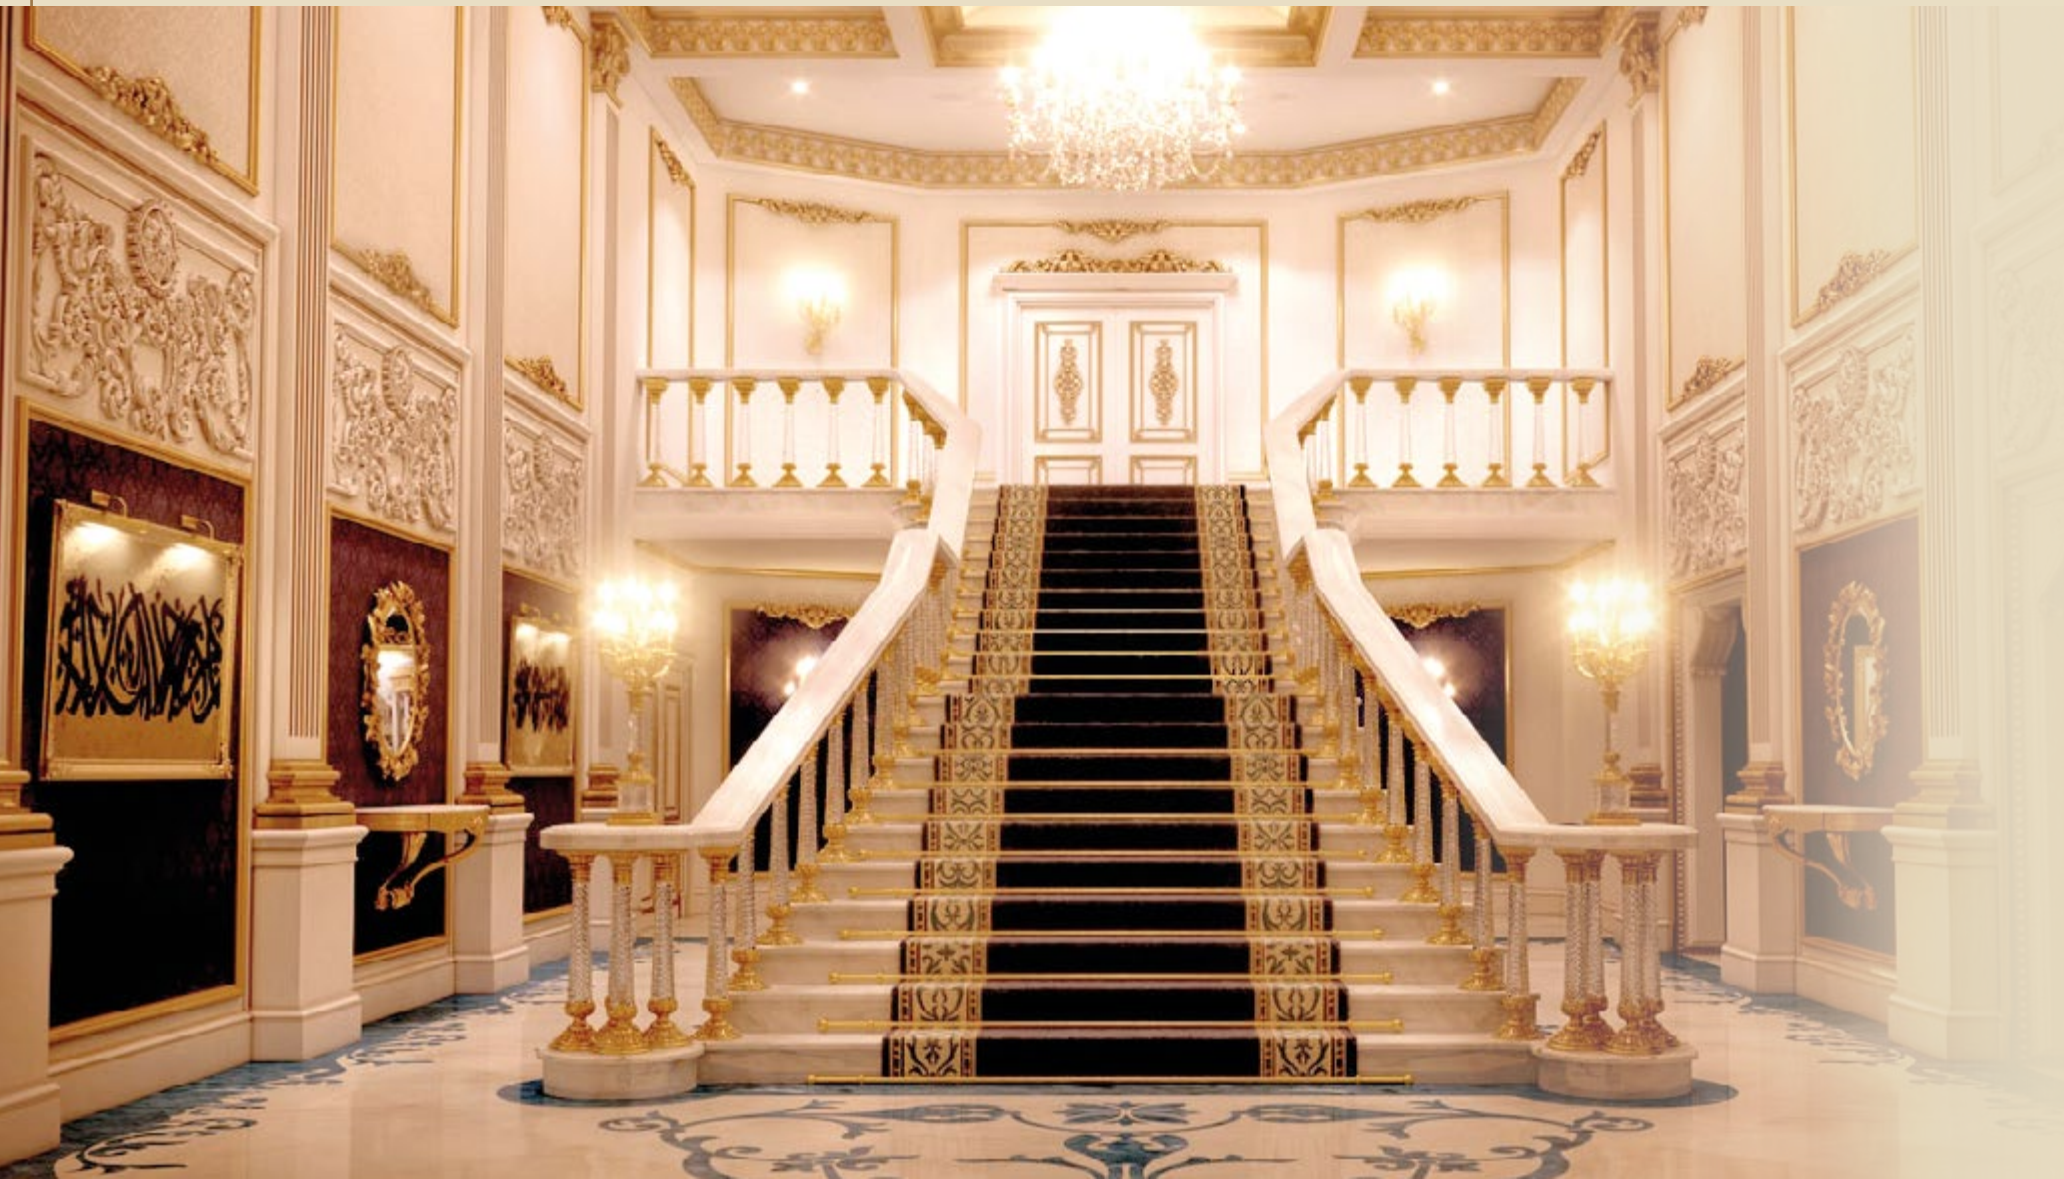

A touch of Italian style

Complete your classic project with Modenese Interiors unique and luxurious carpets. Our interior designers team will help you to select the best options for your exclusive projects to decorate your refined and baroque villa. Each project is different and our aim is to understand and follow step by step each specific client's request to achieve the best results. Our classic carpets and refined rugs will bring a touch of Italian and French style to your residential projects.
